University-wide Standards for Graduate Teaching Assistants at Florida State University

These are University-wide standards that any graduate student must meet prior to assuming one of the various instructional roles. These are meant to be university-wide minimum standards; departments may adopt additional or more stringent standards. Programs that do not use graduate students in instructional roles would not be affected by these standards. They are meant to cover the formal use of graduate teaching assistants (TAs) in course instruction. Extra help sessions and voluntary tutorials in addition to regular class meetings would not normally fall under these requirements. The companion policy, University-wide Standards for Undergraduate Teaching Assistants at Florida State University details the policies that apply to the use of undergraduates as TAs.

Certification of General Teaching Competence:

Each semester in accordance with guidelines of the Southern Association of Colleges and Schools Commission on Colleges (SACSCOC) and the standards outlined in the following sections, the Academic Dean of each College is required to certify in writing to the Dean of The Graduate School that each graduate student who serves as a graduate TA in the classroom or online is competent to teach and for international graduate TAs (ITAs), that they are also competent to teach in spoken English. (See SACSCOC statement below.)

NOTE: Colleges/units need to validate that each TA is serving their designated instructional assignment in the classroom before certifying to the Dean of The Graduate School that the TA certification process is complete. TAs serving as the instructor of record (IOR) for an undergraduate-level course need to be qualified to serve in this role prior to the start of the semester, appointed under the correct job code (M9184), and assigned to the course in Student Central. Students who do not meet the criteria for certification should not be appointed as a TA, serve as the IOR for any undergraduate-level course, or receive access to a course management site.

The University monitors faculty teaching loads, class sizes, and TA usage on a regular basis. As such, it is vital that all instructional assignments are properly documented for all students.

General:

Administrative responsibility for the teaching assignment rests within the department in which the student is employed as a graduate TA. Each department is responsible for providing orientation, training, supervision, and evaluation of its graduate student TAs, and for assigning a faculty member to work closely with the individual graduate student to assist him or her in carrying out teaching responsibilities and to facilitate professional development. There should be a departmental orientation for TAs prior to beginning their teaching responsibilities. It is also recommended that all TAs attend the Program for Instructional Excellence (PIE) Teaching Conference sponsored by PIE before beginning their teaching responsibilities.

Revisions approved by GPC 2/8/21. Revisions approved by GPC 3/01/21 and subsequently approved by Faculty Senate 3/24/21.

It is recommended that each program has a discipline-specific teaching manual for its graduate TAs to supplement the university teaching manual, Instruction at FSU that may be viewed on line

(<http://distance.fsu.edu/instructors/instruction-fsu-guide-teaching-learning-practices>)

Graduate Assistantship Job Code:

To monitor compliance with university policies and Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA) requirements, it is imperative that the proper appointment classifications be used for graduate TAs. It is the responsibility of departments that employ graduate TAs to establish the appropriate job code according to teaching responsibility. The Graduate School and the Human Resources Office will verify the requirements for each classification and are the offices to contact if there are any questions. Job codes to be used for graduate students can be accessed: http://hr.fsu.edu/PDF/Forms/compensation/NRA_Job_Codes.pdf

Note that the university's Conflict of Interest policy applies to all teaching assistants.

As a general rule, job codes should be assigned as described here:

Categories 1 & 2

W9185 Graduate Assistant (Teaching) - Stipend (FLSA Exempt)

This Graduate Assistant shall be classified as a degree-seeking graduate student who assists in the teaching function but is not the IOR and does not have primary responsibility for teaching. The appointee must be fully admitted to and meet the requirements of the University, be fully admitted to a graduate degree program, and be under the supervision of a faculty member. Examples: tutors, recitation leaders, laboratory supervisors, assistants to faculty instructors; when assigned to a standalone undergraduate course, duties may include grading of undergraduate-level work.

Categories 3 & 4

M9184 Graduate Teaching Assistant – Stipend (FLSA Exempt)

This Graduate Teaching Assistant shall be classified as a degree-seeking graduate student who has a master's degree in the teaching discipline, or at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline, and performs primary teaching duties as the IOR that are related to that student's academic program. The appointee must be admitted to and meet the requirements of the University, be fully admitted to a graduate degree program, and be under the supervision of an appropriate faculty member. Example: A graduate student having full instructional responsibilities for a credit class as IOR.

Category 5

Approved by GPC on 3/28/11; Revised 9/23/11 to reflect procedural change; Additional revisions approved by GPC 11/21/12 and subsequently approved by Faculty Senate 12/5/12; grammatical corrections 1/16/13; revisions approved by GPC 10/21/13 and subsequently approved by Faculty Senate 2/19/14. Revisions approved by GPC 2/8/21. Revisions approved by GPC 3/01/21 and subsequently approved by Faculty Senate 3/24/21.

9183 Graduate Teaching Associate (Teaching) – Stipend (FLSA Exempt)-

This Graduate Teaching Associate shall be classified as a degree-seeking graduate student who has a master's degree in the teaching discipline, or at least 18 graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline, and assists in the teaching function of a graduate course or co-listed course (4000/5000; 4000/6000), but is not the IOR. The appointee must be fully admitted to and meet the requirements of the University, be fully admitted to a graduate degree program, and be under the supervision of a faculty member. Examples: For graduate-level or co-listed courses, tutors, recitation leaders, laboratory supervisors, assistants to faculty instructors, or comparable roles. Limited grading and instruction of graduate students as described under "Description of Duties" are permitted as long as a supervising faculty member retains final authority over grades and provides supervision of instructional content. Category 5 Graduate Teaching Associates may not take on the lead instructor role of a graduate or co-listed course.

Description of Duties & Minimum Requirements for Different Categories of Instruction

Category 1. Duties: This category may include a variety of duties for undergraduate-level courses. TA responsibilities cannot involve routine direct contact with a group of undergraduate students in face-to-face or online instructional support roles. Limited one-to-one engagement (e.g., office hours) is permissible. Examples of appropriate tasks include grading of multiple-choice type assignments, the setup of laboratory demonstrations, and clerical course management tasks. If routine instructional contact with a group of undergraduates is expected, then the TA must meet the English language competency standard required for a Category 2 appointment (see p. 5).

Required qualifications and training:

- Program-specific guidelines for the specific duties
- undergraduate degree in discipline or related field
- some graduate work completed or enrolled in
- must attend Day 1 of the Fall PIE Teaching Conference before the commencement of one's TA duties. Day 1 includes required training on the Sexual Harassment Policy, Academic Honor Policy and the Federal Educational Rights and Privacy Act (FERPA). Day 1 also includes training in the use of the Course Management System (CMS) for instruction, time management for TAs, and interacting professionally with one's students. Equivalent preparation offered by the academic unit (that has been approved by the Graduate School) may be substituted for Day 1 of the Fall PIE Teaching Conference, and this alternative must include training in the specific policies noted above.
- supervision by a faculty member in the teaching discipline
- planned periodic evaluations of the TA

Approved by GPC on 3/28/11; Revised 9/23/11 to reflect procedural change; Additional revisions approved by GPC 11/21/12 and subsequently approved by Faculty Senate 12/5/12; grammatical corrections 1/16/13; revisions approved by GPC 10/21/13 and subsequently approved by Faculty Senate 2/19/14. Revisions approved by GPC 2/8/21. Revisions approved by GPC 3/01/21 and subsequently approved by Faculty Senate 3/24/21.

Category 2. Duties: For assignment to undergraduate courses, this category includes a variety of duties (e.g., grading of undergraduate-level work; tutoring; proctoring of computerized exams and laboratories; assisting with or leading laboratory, recitation, or discussion sections; or assisting students with software or equipment use). When grading undergraduate-level work performed by graduate students, potential conflict of interest or grading within the programmatic cohort (as defined in Category 5) should be avoided. Any anticipated grading within the programmatic cohort must be reported to the Academic Dean's Office at the beginning of the semester. This category assumes a greater degree of interaction with undergraduate students than Category 1 and thus requires a higher level of competency in spoken English (see p. 7).

A Category 2 TA may provide assistance in graduate-level or co-listed courses (4000/5000 or 4000/6000 combined courses). Examples of appropriate tasks for Category 2 TAs in graduate-level or co-listed courses include setting up laboratory demonstrations, proctoring exams, moderating a discussion board, distributing assignments, preparing class materials/presentations/visual aids, taking attendance or recording questions and responses in class, recording lectures, assisting students with software or equipment use, other clerical tasks, and grading of undergraduate-level work. No grading or comparable assessment of graduate-level work for graduate-level credit, and no instruction of content not previously introduced by the IOR may be performed by Category 2 TAs assigned to graduate-level or co-listed courses.

Required qualifications and training:

- program specific guidelines for the specific duties
- undergraduate degree in discipline or related field
- some graduate work completed or enrolled in
- must attend Day 1 of the Fall PIE Teaching Conference before the commencement of one's teaching duties. Day 1 includes required training on the Sexual Harassment Policy, Academic Honor Policy and FERPA. Day 1 also includes training in the use of the CMS for instruction, time management for TAs, and interacting professionally with one's students. Equivalent preparation offered by the academic unit (that has been approved by the Graduate School) may be substituted for Day 1 of the Fall PIE Teaching Conference, and this alternative must include training in the specific policies noted above.
- supervision by a faculty member in the teaching discipline
- planned periodic evaluations of the TA

Note: The distinction of Categories 1 & 2 recognizes that the extent of interaction with undergraduates, and thus the necessary spoken English competency of the TA, varies across disciplines though the position title is the same.

Note Regarding Category 3 & 4 Appointments

Appointments for TAs category types 3 and 4 presume the graduate TA is the IOR for an undergraduate course only (1000-4000 course level, no co-listed courses). The policy forbids a graduate student from being the IOR or taking on the lead instructor role for a graduate course or co-listed course. Units may apply to the Graduate School for exceptions to this rule. When grading undergraduate-level work performed by graduate students registered in undergraduate courses, potential grading within a programmatic cohort (as defined in Category 5) should be avoided. Any anticipated grading within a programmatic cohort must be reported to the Academic Dean's Office at the beginning of the semester.

Category 3. Duties: Instructor of record in lower-level undergraduate courses (1000-2000 level).

Required qualifications and training:

- a minimum of 18 hours of graduate coursework in the teaching discipline
- must attend Days 1 & 2 of the Fall PIE Teaching Conference before the commencement of one's teaching duties or an equivalent offered by the academic unit (that has been approved by the Graduate School).
 - Days 1 & 2 of the Fall PIE Teaching Conference address the following policies which are required for this category: Sexual Harassment Policy, Academic Honor Policy, the FERPA, American with Disabilities Act (ADA), Grading Policies, Textbook Adoption Procedure Policy, Syllabus Policy, Class Attendance Policy, Final Exam Policy, Copyright Law Regulations (Copyright Revision Act of 1976 "fair use") and Course Evaluation Policy. Days 1 & 2 also include training in a number of topics that are of value to TAs, e.g. the use of the CMS for instruction, time management for TAs, interacting professionally with one's students, dealing with distressed students, diversity in the classroom, grading and assessment.
 - NOTE: Alternative "equivalent training" that is provided by an academic unit must include training in the specific policies indicated above.
- student participation in a "teaching in the discipline" course or equivalent academic unit orientation
- direct supervision by a faculty member in the teaching discipline
- planned periodic evaluations of the TA

Category 4. Duties: Instructor of record in upper-level undergraduate courses (3000-4000 level).

Required qualifications and training:

- Master's degree or at least 30 hours of graduate coursework in the teaching discipline
- must attend Days 1 & 2 of the Fall PIE Teaching Conference before the commencement of one's teaching duties or an equivalent offered by the academic unit (that has been approved by the Graduate School).

- Days 1 & 2 of the Fall PIE Teaching Conference address the following policies which are required for this category: Sexual Harassment Policy, Academic Honor Policy, the FERPA, ADA, Grading Policies, Textbook Adoption Procedure Policy, Syllabus Policy, Class Attendance Policy, Final Exam Policy, Copyright Law Regulations (Copyright Revision Act of 1976 “fair use”) and Course Evaluation Policy. Days 1 & 2 also include training in a number of topics that are of value to TAs, e.g. the use of the CMS for instruction, time management for TAs, interacting professionally with one’s students, dealing with distressed students, diversity in the classroom, grading and assessment.
- NOTE: Alternative “equivalent training” that is provided by an academic unit must include training in the specific policies indicated above.
 - student participation in a “teaching in the discipline” course or equivalent academic unit orientation
 - direct supervision by a faculty member in the teaching discipline
 - planned and periodic evaluations of the TA

Category 5. Duties: Providing assistance to lead instructors of graduate-level or co-listed courses. In addition to duties described for Category 2 TAs, Category 5 TAs may perform limited grading and instruction. Grading is supervised by the IOR and should be based on faculty-created criteria (e.g. rubrics, point-breakdowns, sample solutions, etc.). Final assignment of grades is reserved for the IOR.

Category 5 TAs must defer to the IOR for all final decisions. When interacting with students, Category 5 TAs should communicate their support role to the students enrolled. They should explain that grading is based on faculty-provided criteria, is reviewed by the IOR, and can be discussed with the IOR.

Category 5 TAs may provide limited instruction in graduate-level and co-listed courses. In addition to reviewing material previously introduced by the IOR, Category 5 TAs may present new material on their own in rare instances, and only after discussing the planned lecture with the IOR first. They may present new material several times throughout the semester if the supervising faculty member is in attendance at each of these sessions. At a minimum, a supermajority of class sessions that introduce new material should be led by the IOR.

Category 5 TAs may not assign final course grades, but may assign grades on daily work, quizzes, laboratory participation, etc. Category 5 TAs may not develop course material unless it is in direct consultation with and review from the IOR. Furthermore, Category 5 TAs may not grade students who fall under the University’s Conflict of Interest policy or within the TA’s programmatic cohort. For the purpose of this policy, a TA’s programmatic cohort is defined as the group of graduate students in the unit where the TA is pursuing a degree or certificate who are taking many or most of the same courses as the TA within the same time frame as the TA. Units must ensure that no conflict of interest or no grading within their programmatic cohort will exist.

 - NOTE: Alternative "equivalent training" that is provided by an academic unit must include training in the specific policies indicated above.
- student participation in the PIE Advanced Graduate TA training; must be completed during the semester of a student's first Category 5 assignment. The training covers, among other topics, potential conflict of interest situations and how to resolve them; navigating professional and student roles within the same program; and more.
- direct supervision by a faculty member in the teaching discipline
- planned periodic evaluations of the TA

Certification of Spoken English for Graduate Teaching Assistants:

As noted above Academic Deans are required to certify to the Dean of The Graduate School that the TAs in the college are competent to teach. This statement should also include certification that all graduate TAs whose native language is not English are competent to teach in spoken English.

All international graduate students who are not native speakers of English, and who are going to be TAs, should take the SPEAK test when they arrive on campus (as noted below, students who scored 26 or higher on the speaking portion of the IBTOEFL may be exempted from taking the SPEAK test). The Center for Intensive English Studies (CIES) administers and scores the SPEAK test, CIES also offers courses in spoken English (EAP courses). The SPEAK test is administered several times in the week(s) prior to the beginning of each semester, and the scores are available within three to four days of the date the test is administered. Scheduling and registration information can be found at <http://cies.fsu.edu/SPEAK>. Departments are urged to take advantage of this opportunity to receive an initial estimate of speaking ability. In addition, the SPEAK is routinely administered as an end-of-term evaluation for students enrolled in EAP courses. TAs not enrolled in EAP courses may also take the test at that time. Course offerings, as well as test dates for SPEAK tests, are distributed periodically to

This information is also available on the CIES Web site (www.cies.fsu.edu/EAP).

The standards for certification of spoken English are as follows:

- A score of 50 or higher on the SPEAK test, or 26 or higher on the speaking portion of the IBTOEFL, certifies a student to serve in all categories.
- A score of at least 40 on the SPEAK test is acceptable for a TA appointed in Category 1. Appointment in this category is appropriate if there is no or limited direct contact with undergraduate students e.g., is responsible for grading tests and/or only providing direct support to an instructor. If there is to be any routine direct communication with a group of undergraduate students whether face-to-face or online, the higher standard applies. Limited one-to-one engagement e.g., office hours is permissible.
- A score of 45 on SPEAK, or 23-24 on the Speaking section of TOEFL iBT, certifies a TA to serve in Category 1; and in Category 2 for up to two semesters if also concurrently enrolled in an appropriate EAP course(s). If, by the end of these two semesters, the student's skills have not improved sufficiently to achieve a score of 50 on the SPEAK exam, the student will be eligible to serve only in Category 1. The student will be allowed to continue to serve in Category 2 or serve as IOR in category 3-4 by meeting at least one of the following two criteria:
 - Achieve a score of 50 on SPEAK.
 - Enroll in Advanced Spoken English for ITAs (EAP5835) and score 90 or better in the course.
- Student's scoring 40 or below on SPEAK should enroll in the appropriate EAP course if the goal is to serve in Categories 2-4. Once a 45 on SPEAK is achieved such a student will be certified to serve in Category 2 for up to two semesters if also concurrently enrolled in an appropriate CIES English language course(s). If, by the end of these two semesters, the student's skills have not improved sufficiently to achieve a score of 50 on the SPEAK exam, the student will be eligible to serve only in Category 1. The student will only be allowed to continue to serve in Category 2 or serve as IOR in Categories 3-4 by meeting at least one of the following two criteria:
 - Achieve a score of 50 on SPEAK.
 - Enroll in Advanced Spoken English for ITAs (EAP5835) and score 90 or better in the course.
- Students serving in Category 5 must achieve a score of 50 on the SPEAK exam before assuming their duties.
- The standard for international students serving as ITAs in Modern Language and Linguistics is 45 (SPEAK) or 23 (TOEFL) if the student is teaching a course in their native language.

Approved by GPC on 3/28/11; Revised 9/23/11 to reflect procedural change; Additional revisions approved by GPC 11/21/12 and subsequently approved by Faculty Senate 12/5/12; grammatical corrections 1/16/13; revisions approved by GPC 10/21/13 and subsequently approved by Faculty Senate 2/19/14. Exceptions:

In general, if new graduate students are unable to attend the Fall PIE Teaching Conference prior to commencing their first semester of teaching they may only be appointed to Category 1. However, prior to the commencement of their teaching duties they must complete the online required policy modules (Sexual Harassment Policy, Academic Honor Policy and the FERPA) that are available through PIE or undergo equivalent preparation offered by the academic unit (that has been approved by the Graduate School). If equivalent preparation is not available and if they are to continue teaching in the Spring or Summer and thereafter, they must attend the Spring PIE Teaching Workshop which is held the Friday of the first week of classes. Ultimately, they must participate in training through one of the PIE options or through the academic unit in order to continue to serve as a TA.

If students' first semester of enrollment is Spring and they are to be assigned teaching responsibilities they must complete the required online training modules and attend the PIE Spring Teaching Workshop or an academic unit equivalent (that has been approved by the Graduate School).

In unique instances a Department Chair or Dean may appeal the application of these standards by submitting a request to the Dean of The Graduate School.

Equivalent Previous Experience and Emergencies:

With the exception of the minimum of eighteen hours of graduate coursework in the teaching discipline for primary instruction and in accordance with guidelines provided by SACSCOC the following options will be available to deal with special circumstances:

A graduate student who through previous preparation or teaching experience has demonstrated knowledge and strong teaching skills can be exempt from some of the requirements, as appropriate, by certification of the program chair.

In an emergency, a department may appoint a graduate TA who has not met all the University-wide requirements for that category of appointment if there is an assurance that the student will meet the requirements by the end of the term in which the student is teaching.

Instructor of Record (IOR) Policy

FSU defines the "Instructor of Record" as the individual designated by the academic unit as responsible for a course, including developing its design, delivery, assignments, and assessments. All IORs, regardless of rank or type, must meet the appropriate standards for credentials and appointment. (FSU Policy 3A-6)

Normal policy forbids graduate students from serving as an IOR and teaching a graduate course. This includes co-listed undergraduate/graduate sections. Exceptions can be made by requesting approval from the Vice President for Faculty Development and Advancement

Graduate Teaching Assistants: master's degree in the teaching discipline or eighteen graduate semester hours in the teaching discipline, direct supervision by a faculty member experienced in the teaching discipline, regular in-service training, and planned and periodic evaluations. Sexual Harassment, Academic Honor Policy and FERPA policies and equivalency:

University policy on sexual harassment training is provided by the Office of Equal Opportunity and Compliance (EOC) within Human Resources (<http://www.hr.fsu.edu>), the Academic Honor Policy training is offered by the Office of the Vice President of Faculty Development and Advancement (<http://fda.fsu.edu/>) and the FERPA training is offered by the Office of the University Registrar (<http://registrar.fsu.edu/>). These offices provide training at the Fall PIE Teaching Conference. In addition, PIE offers online modules for those students who are unable to attend the Fall PIE Teaching Conference or who begin their enrollment in the Spring or Summer semesters.

Program for Instructional Excellence Conference and Workshops:

The Program for Instructional Excellence supports and complements departmental TA training programs. To prepare TAs for immediate undergraduate classroom responsibilities, PIE conducts an annual two day teaching conference the Wednesday and Thursday before classes start in the fall semester. The conference is free to participants and focuses on policies and services at FSU as they relate to teaching. PIE offers workshops on teaching during the fall and spring semester and an online training series the "Basics of Teaching @ FSU". PIE also assists departments in developing TA departmental training programs.

Approval of Equivalent Training

The Graduate School is responsible for collating and approving the equivalent training options provided by academic programs and entering the information into an online database to facilitate the certification of graduate teaching assistants each semester.
